- First I want to emphasize that Erik's role in this class was co-teacher more than TA. Erik helped 7 groups of students plan, collect, and analyze original research projects. He also taught complex research methods and statistics concepts in class. Erik was a great TA, very conscientious, thoughtful, and well-liked by students. He gave me weekly feedback on lab sections and kept on top of any issues that arose. I am very grateful to have had Erik working with me on this class this quarter.
